Foreword from the Chief Executive

Thank you.

Thank you for your interest in joining our team. It's a big decision to apply for a new role, to leave an existing job and to take the plunge to join a new organisation. There are so many unknowns when taking on a new job. What will my new boss be like? What is the organisation's culture like? If I need to take a day off will I be allowed? Can I work from home? Will there be regular cake in the office or staff room? Hopefully this document will answer some of those questions and demystify what working for our Charity is like.

Getting across the workplace culture of an organisation in a job advert or a job description is really hard, but if I had to sum up our workplace culture in one word I would choose – family. I often describe us as a family employer. We understand the pressures and needs of family life and especially after such troubling times. Our charity recognises that home life comes first and the Senior Management team and I are keen to reassure and encourage our colleagues to manage their work-life balance.

And then there's the work family. Everyone here knows their colleagues have got their backs. I am incredibly proud of our work family. Recent experiences have only cemented my belief that every member of the team here is looking out for their colleagues, wanting to help and going over and above to achieve this.

We are at an exciting point in the history of this charity. We are recovering from the pandemic, finding ourselves in a stable and secure financial position with a clear vision and mission to deliver upon and working together to make a difference to the world. We are looking for candidates that want come and not just work here, but to join our work family, help us to be impactful and contribute to better, more sustainable, happier, healthier lives through STEM.

Thank you again for your interest in the role. If you feel you share our family values and want to make a difference then I urge you to apply. We are incredibly motivated to make sure our staff represent the diverse audiences that we serve, so please do read the section on Equality, Diversity and Inclusion. If you have any questions, or would like an informal chat with me or one of the Senior Management team before you apply, please do speak to Laura.

Looking forward to meeting you,

Ran Ward,

PS. There regularly are amazing cakes in the office and staff room often baked by either Jennie or Lizi. If you're really lucky Mark will bring in his delicious brownies. They're really not good for the waistline but they taste so good!

About the Charity

The pandemic has emphasised our strengths and our weaknesses; as a charity, a society, a nation and a global community. In the UK alone, it has drawn attention to the depth and breadth of inequality that exists based on our geography, race, ethnicity, age, health, wealth and education. It has also demonstrated the critically important role science, technology, engineering and maths (STEM) has played in overcoming such a crisis; to understand the virus, to forecast and measure its impact, to develop vaccines, to innovate, manufacture and distribute live-saving equipment, the list goes on.

It is not only the scientists and engineers who have to step up. We all do. Science literacy is an enabler and empowers us all to make informed choices. Our Charity is on a mission to inspire every child in science; because all our futures depend on it.

Winchester Science Centre has been sparking children's curiosity in STEM since it was founded in 1986.

We strive to remove social, cultural and intellectual barriers to inspire and engage all children in STEM, particularly those with a disability or impairment, so that we might raise children's aspirations and confidence, promote diversity and inclusion, and overcome inequality.

By sparking and harnessing children's curiosity in STEM, and by removing barriers to engagement, we believe children can develop the confidence, ambition and freedom to improve their own lives, the lives of others and ultimately life on Earth through STEM.

As experts in communicating STEM to children and families, we create 'WOW!' experiences that are fun, inclusive, immersive, interactive and accessible. Reaching out to children in innovative ways through our Science Centre, in schools, in communities and online, and through connecting and collaborating with Universities and industries.

We are resolute that our Charity has an important role to play in empowering future generations to lead the charge for change, to live healthier and more sustainable lives and to find the solutions to tackle the world's biggest challenges.

The pandemic threatened to derail all our plans; but it hasn't. Well-defined strategy, strong leadership, robust financial management and working together means we are now ready and eager to embark on the next critical phase of our Charity's development.

Equality, diversity and inclusion

Our charity is committed to breaking down barriers to STEM and wants to help everyone regardless of age, background, gender, sexual orientation, ethnicity, race, religion or belief, disability, impairment or any other protected characteristic to be in STEM.

Equality and inclusion are at the heart of everything we do. We want to create a truly diverse and inclusive workplace. If you are disabled and have the essential skills and experience to do the job, we will invite you to an interview.

We recognise that through diversity our Charity can grow and we are committed to providing an inclusive recruitment process to support this. We want to work with a great team, with people who share our values and can make a huge contribution to sparking curiosity. We believe the team must reflect the diverse communities we work with so to support this, we are very willing to facilitate flexible working, changes to the infrastructure, systems and processes in order to welcome the most diverse candidates possible.

If you wish to have a conversation about accessibility, the role or the application process please do get in touch with Laura (see last page for contact details).

Café Manager

Key objectives

- To drive café revenue for the Charity and reduce costs
- To deliver a café offer of the highest standards in terms of quality and levels of customer satisfaction
- To reduce the impact of the café offer on the environment, and create a sustainable future

Role purpose

We are looking for an experienced and motivated Café Manager to oversee in-house catering and drive its development forward to reach a new level of success.

Currently, the catering offer provides a service for public visiting at weekends and during public and school holidays, as well as recurring and one-off out-of-hours events.

This is an exciting opportunity for the right individual to use their creative flair and commercial skills to consistently improve the quality of our café whilst striving for high levels of customer satisfaction, driving revenue for the Charity and improving efficiency.

Our recently refurbished café and event spaces are a busy and vibrant environment and this is an opportunity to be a part of a growing team, driving the Charity's visitor operation forward and creating a sustainable café offer to reduce our impact on the environment. The post holder will draw on their previous experience to develop the offer, manage suppliers and lead, motivate and train a high-performing team.

This role would suit a target driven, enthusiastic and energetic individual who thrives in a fast-paced and fun workplace.

Key responsibilities

- Take ownership for all aspects of the café experience
- Manage day-to-day operations of the on-site café
- Train and inspire staff to deliver excellent customer service and experiences
- Develop and grow the café business including developing the offer, seeking new opportunities to improve the experience and drive revenue
- Coordinate with vendors and order supplies ensuring a well-stocked café whilst controlling wastage
- Ensure that all Health and Safety regulations are adhered to
- Be fully accountable for the café and responsible for ensuring that customers are looked after, deliveries are worked quickly and routines are completed to maintain a safe, clean and tidy café.
- Support the Charity's sustainability aspirations to limit waste and reduce our impact on the environment
- Listen and respond to customer feedback and report improvements
- Work with the management team to deliver an outstanding customer experience across the Centre
- Deliver training to ensure the team have the capability and confidence to deliver their roles

Application process

If you feel like you're the right person for the role, we'd love to hear from you and receive your application.

Please complete the editable PDF application form and send it, together with a cover letter, by email to lauraollis@winchestersciencecentre.org. We will try to confirm receipt of every application and we'll individually review your application as soon as possible.

If you need any information in a different format or would like to apply in an alternative way, please get in touch. Contact Laura using the address above, or to speak to Laura in person please call the office on 01962 863 791 to book a call back.

Have we caught your eye, but you're still a little unsure? We welcome an informal discussion even if you are only considering applying for the role. Please do get in touch with Laura to arrange a brief informal and relaxed call with the CEO or one of the Senior Management Team.

What's next?

If you're successful in being shortlisted based on your application, we will arrange a time for you to swing by for a chat so we can get to know you better, and for you to get to know the WSC family for yourself.

We know interviews can be quite daunting but we're not here to catch you out - we just want to know what makes you brilliant, why you should be part of our growing family, and how you can support our charitable aims to make a difference. We can't wait to meet you!
